Iowa High School Soccer Coaches Association announces Mr. Soccer 2010

August 2010: The Iowa High School Soccer Coaches Association congratulates Garrett Crall from Norwalk High School on his selection as Mr. Soccer 2010. Crall was selected from nominees who are successful on the soccer pitch, in the classroom, and who contribute to their community.

In 2010, Garrett was instrumental in the Warriors' return to the Iowa High School State Tournament, garnering All-Conference and All-State selections. In addition to his on-field play, Garrett compiled a 3.91 Cumulative GPA, earning Second Team Academic All-State Honors. His service to community included mentoring Elementary School students, coaching youth soccer, and volunteering in church projects.

Garrett will continue his academic and soccer career with Drake University's 2010 squad.
